Serial No.

In reply to this office enquiry whether Mr. Vaidyanatha Iyer drew any allowance for having been in charge of the Vice-President's office from the 18th November to the 15th December 1891 and if so, why the same should not be refunded by him as in the case of Mr. Annaji Rao, the President has submitted a copy of Mr. Vaidyanatha Iyer's letter stating that the allowance for the additional duties involved was well earned and on the part of others that the right on his part to draw it has been acquiesced in by the then Comptroller for over 12 years and that it would be hard now to be called upon to refund it.

Your most obedient servant,

Lettor No. 24 dated the 27th July 1904 from Mr. S. Viedyanatha Iyer, Senior Assistant Commissioner, Nanjangude Division to the President, Municipal Commission, Bangalore City.

Sir,

I have the honor to acknowledge your letter No. 101 dated 8th Instant enclosing two half sheets from the Acquittance Roll for the months of November and December 1891 which are herewith returned.

As to the question why the allowance of Rs 88-7-11 drawn me while I was in charge of the Vice-President of that Municipality should not be refunded, I have only to submit, for the favorable consideration of the Government, that the discharge of those duties involved an additional expense and responsibility to my the then legitimate work, that as such the allowance was, I humbly submit, a well earned one, that the right on the part of myself and others to draw it has been acquiesced in by the then Comptroller for over 12 years and that it would be hard to be called upon to refund the same under the circumstances stated above.

I have &c.,
